

Sean H. Im

---

PROFILE

- Pharmaceutical Manufacturing Quality Control Specialist with successful leadership experience across multiple pharmacy settings. I take pride in doing it the right way, enhancing processes, and delivering measurable contributions in supporting team success.

EXPERTISE

- |                          |                                  |
|--------------------------|----------------------------------|
| - Sterile Compounding    | - Process & Equipment Validation |
| - NonSterile Compounding | - Deviation Investigation        |
| - Quality Control        | - Six Sigma Quality              |
| - Aseptic Technique      | - Lean Six Sigma Efficiency      |

EDUCATION

University of Colorado Denver, Denver

Biology & Philosophy

Aug 2010 - Dec 2015

Bachelor of Science & Art (Dual Major)

EXPERIENCE

VPI Compounding Pharmacy – Quality Control Technician II

May 2024 – Apr 2026

- Routinely perform personnel qualifications, environmental sampling, batch testing, equipment maintenance, author and review documents
- Highly skilled in pharmaceutical compounding, aseptic technique, performing training, and compounding technician duties as needed
- Completed multiple projects from end to end: process improvements, method validations, equipment validations, and training programs

UCHealth Anschutz Pharmacy, Aurora – Lead Formulation CPhT

Sept 2023 – May 2024

- Extensively performed sterile and non-sterile compounding
- Improved resource preparation procedure and communication, contributing to faster compounding turnaround and fewer workflow disruptions

Leiters Health, Centennial – VLIP Production Lead

Mar 2020 – Nov 2022

- Lead a team of technicians performing visual inspection and packaging
- Extensive experience in production schedule management, deviation investigation, and CAPA writing following the GMP guidelines