Looking for a great job in driving. I do not have a CDL, I am looking for a company willing to train me to obtain a class B or C CDL. I have great communication and, customers relations skills. I love people and get along with anyone. I am a wonderful driver and believe that safety is everything when your on the roads. I would be very happy in dispatching. I have operated multiple types of vehicles. I feel the bigger the better. I want to find a job that I get to bond with my customers and co-workers. If your interested please call me.
