

Steven Reyna

5420 Three Points Blvd, #222
Mound, MN 55364
(612)644-3254
steve4reyna@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

I'm seeking this position to expand the skills I've obtained from my extensive machining career and to become a long term asset to your company.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Honeywell, Golden Valley, MN 10/2018 – Present

Backup Group Leader – CNC Lathe Dept.

- Train and assist operators
- Evaluate and restart crashed machines
- Troubleshoot Swiss style lathes
- Work with engineering to improve programs & recommend better inserts
- Assign machines to operators
- Work with engineering to evaluate parts that operators have rejected that were ran on the previous shift
- Inform the 2nd shift Backup Group Leader on the status of in process setups

MultiSource Manufacturing, Fridley, MN 11/2017 - 10/2018

CNC Machinist II

- Setup and operate CNC lathes
- Streamline existing programs
- Substitute tooling
- Write and modify programs

Professional Instruments Company, Hopkins, MN 12/2006 - 11/2017

CNC Machinist II

- Program CNC lathes
- Setup and operate CNC lathes and surface grinders.
- Setup and operate manual OD grinders, ID grinders, lathes, and mills.
- Hold very tight tolerances (+/-0.00002)
- Work with upper management to create better fixtures for parts.

EDUCATION

University of St. Thomas St. Paul, MN 2006 - 2006
Applied Statistics for Manufacturing Quality

SKILLS

- Using Micro Vu vision system.
- Extensive optical comparator experience.
- Machined a wide variety of materials.

- Operate Ziess CMM
- Manual CMM

REFERENCES

- Steven Gerber, former foreman at Professional Instruments Co. (763)639-7488
- Dan Phillips, Machinist II at FasTest (651)238-3805
- Luke Ashton, Machinist II at Professional Instruments Co. (763)691-4626