I was notified by Bopha Chhem. She was the one who saw Thuria was washing herself.

Thanks

I get notified by BUNTHY . I would not give her a warning yet . I just want to make sure she understand why we not allow to do that . and now she understand it . if that happened again we will write her up .

Thank you

Hi Heng,

How were you notified of this information? Was Thuria caught by another employee? Was there a mess?

There may be a way that I can give her a warning for not following sanitation procedures but just need a little bit more info.

Thank you,
