

Timothy Altevogt

Production Staff/Machine Operator

Lakewood, CO 80226

phojo723_qpw@indeedemail.com

303.880.3830

Experienced and versatile professional with strong organizational skills and systems planning. I possess a strong desire to contribute to meeting the organization's goals through excellent people and communication skills in order to help foster the growth of the company's brand power and industry awareness.

Authorized to work in the US for any employer

Work Experience

Denver

ESS Metron - Denver, CO

Present

- Responsible for maintaining all mechanical, plumbing, HVAC, and pneumatic equipment.
- Expertly diagnosed machine and system malfunctions resulting in limited downtime affecting production goals .
- Responsible for machine preventative maintenance.
- Worked in maintaining facilities and making necessary upgrades to existing infrastructure helping create a more sustainable work environment .
- Work with safety coordinator in addressing any safety related concerns or issues in order to maintain a safe work environment for company staff.
- Single-handedly managed the successful upgrade and deployment of new environmentally friendly illumination systems with zero cost overruns and zero safety incidents saving the company over $80,000 per year in energy costs.

Production Staff/Machine Operator

Steelhead Composites - Golden, CO

2014 to 2017

- Responsible for the quality production of high pressure vessels for use in hydraulic and other high pressure applications.
- Responsible for in-process and final inspection using various quality control inspection tools and practices.
- Responsible for reading and interpreting production prints.
- Worked in the machine shop and operated the horizontal machining center as well as the Bridgeport vertical milling machine.

Set-Up Technician

Accellent - Arvada, CO

January 2011 to October 2014

Set-up Technician/Machine Repair, Accellent

- Responsible for setting up and repair of centerless grinding machines for safe and proper operation by production personnel.
- Responsible for in-process and final inspection using various quality control inspection tools and practices.
- Responsible for reading and interpreting production prints.

Machine Operator/Inspector

US Synthetic - Orem, UT

2006 to April 2009

- Responsible for the quality production of polycrystalline diamond cutting discs and shaped product using centerless grinding machines, devliegs, presses and lapping machines.
- Responsible for in-process and final inspection using various quality control inspection tools.
- Responsible for reading and interpreting production prints.
- Member of multiple Kaizen teams focused on reduction in waste and improving safety and morale plant wide.
- Worked in various teams along with our engineers during my tenure at US Synthetic where our goals were to eliminate waste in the worksite, increase production yields and identify and correct rejected parts.

General Production

General Production, Nestle USA - Springville, UT

2005 to 2006

Springville, UT 2005-2006

- Responsible for interpreting recipes, preparing required ingredients and transporting to line for production.
- Responsible for ensuring continuous, safe operation of the production line.
- Safety representative for my team, responsible to report unsafe practices, equipment and personnel and make suggestions for overall safety improvements for the plant.

Technical Training Specialist Western US, Nikon USA

Nikon USA - New York, NY

2001 to 2005

- Responsible for conducting training classes and sales presentations on new and future digital cameras and film scanners to mass market, government, distribution and web based accounts and customers.
- Conducted customer on-site training classes ranging in size from 10-150 people.
- Provided sales presentations to buyers within existing and prospective accounts.
- Built key elements for web based training program.
- Conceptualized a monthly Technological Newsletter to provide information regarding product features and specifications, highlighting the key features of those products.
- Traveled extensively throughout the United States and Canada.
- Maintained customer satisfaction and relations through strong communication skills, product knowledge and presentation abilities.

Photojournalist/Photo Editor

US Navy

1993 to 2001

- Responsible for the evaluation, quality control, editing, marketing and archival of U.S. Navy imagery from the around the globe to major national and international media outlets.
- Expertly troubleshoot, researched and corrected any operational deficiencies encountered with all IT and digital imaging equipment.

Education

Associate in Business Marketing

Hilliard High School - Hilliard, OH

Skills

- Manufacturing
- Machine Operator
- Assembly
- Forklift
- Excel
- Welding
- fast learner
- problem solving
- Powerpoint
- Data Entry

Military Service

Branch: United States Navy

Rank: E5

Certifications and Licenses

Driver's License

Additional Information

- Qualified expert on centerless grinder.
- Qualified expert on Devlieg machines.
- Familiar with EDM (Electrical Discharge Machining).
- Qualified in-process inspection and final inspection including visual defects.
- Qualified on optical comparator, micrometers, height gages, pin gages, calipers, flatness gages and other quality control inspection tools.
- Qualified in Dye Booth operation.
- Qualified in basic and advanced LEAN manufacturing and 6s.
- Qualified in operation of Horizontal Machining Center and Bridgeport Vertical Machining Milling center.

Computer Skills

- Expert in the following software applications: Microsoft Word, Power Point, Excel, Macintosh Keynote, iPhoto, Adobe Photoshop CE and 7.0. Operating systems that I am proficient with are Macintosh OS and Microsoft Windows.