Tayton Shaw

So yesterday I got into a confrontation with Russ. So Tyler was on the forklift and I was walking by he asked Tyler what we needed on the floor Tyler said yogurt and he thought that was it but I said that we also need cheese then he told me he said "I wasn't fucking talking to you". I said that all I was saying was I need cheese on the floor then he said with a tone when you are lead I will come ask you but till then I'm not fucking talking to you. At that point I was getting really upset so I told him to fuck off and walked away from him. Then he kind got in my face then went to the office to try to get me into trouble. So I came to talk to Benn and Ryan and told them I'm going to go home and after I clocked out he proceeded to call me a whiny little bitch.
