Currently I am not attending school due to unfortunate events in the past few years, but I am more than willing to learn new skills from any employer that will give me to opportunity to work with them. I am 21 years old, my interest are business, business management, construction, and hands on work. Very good with home interior reapirs, cleaning, car detailing, lawnsclaping, window car window tinting, landscapng, and much more. Hopng to find a job that is suitable so that I can pay off debts and return to school to continue my plan of finishing school with my 2 year AA degree in business.

Willing to relocate: Anywhere

Authorized to work in the US for any employer
