I learned at Mc. Donalds about leaderships skills, time management, interacting with people, hospitality, customer service. for example i learned that customers come first, i learned how to multitask. i also learned how to interact with people and help them. i learned that customer service is very important and they should feel comfortable. I learned a lot patience not only with customers but with crew member and managers. I also learned attentiveness by giving the customer my full attention and interacting with them. i also learned clear communication skills by solving their problem quickly as possible

Internship

Baby Space - Minneapolis, MN - 2013-06 - 2014-09

55404

I Learned at Baby Space about problem solving and time management. For example when a supervisor wasn't around and i had to work with kids. i had to use communication when i needed help, i also had to use time management because i had to have kids sleep at certain times and areas clean and breakfast lunch and snack served on time.
