

Estuardo De Leon
1758 N.Leclair Ave.
Chicago IL, 60639
(773) 999 6169
(773) 999-6169

OBJECTIVE

Seeking a position related to CNC or machine operating, where I can utilize my skills and experience.

SUMMARY

- Working knowledge of blueprint and schematic reading
- Proficiency in using metrology tools such as: micrometers, dial calipers, depth gages.
- Experience with CNC mills and lathes
- Experienced in using a variety of power and hand tools.
- Experienced in working with high tolerance specification (tenths of thousands)

EDUCATION

2005-2006 Wright College Chicago, IL

Computerized Numerical Control-Advanced Certificate Program

Courses included:

Blueprint Reading, Machine Shop Technology, Machine Shop Operation, CAD/CAM, CNC Operation, CNC Programming.

1995 Truman College Chicago, IL

GED received

WORK HISTORY

2006-2013 Brad-Foote- Gear Cicero, IL

Set up & Operator

- Produced gears and turbines for wind mills
- Operated Mazak, Doosan mills.
- Operated V-47 lathes
- Familiar with variety of controls including Haas, Fanuc and Mazak
- Checking parts for accuracy with tolerances (.005-.0010)
- Preventive maintenance of machinery

1996-2006 Frederic Cooper Lamps Chicago, IL

Shipping/Packing

- Picking orders in for next day shipping, maintaining 100% accuracy.
- Picking, packing, receiving, restocking using fork lifts and cranes
- Cleared production area by securing and moving empty pallets for stocking

References available upon request