Additional information you want CMG and our clients to know in the event of an emergency:

Form W-4 (2013)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2013 expires February 17, 2014. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2013. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

It is Corporate Management Group's (CMG) policy that all employees should be able to enjoy a work environment free from all forms of discrimination, including harassment. As such, CMG is committed to vigorously enforcing their Anti-harassment Policy. This policy applies to all employees of the organization (without regard to position) and individuals not directly connected to CMG (e.g., an outside vendor, consultant, customer or guest). Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits employment discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local commission, disability, sexual orientation or veteran status. Harassment is considered a form of discrimination and is specifically included among the prohibitions under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. In addition, retaliation or reprisal taken against anyone who has expressed concern about harassment or discrimination against the individual raising the concern is illegal.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) defines sexual harassment as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexual comments, or other verbal or physical acts of a sexual or sex-based nature including, but not limited to drawings, pictures, jokes, and/or teasing where (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or a condition of an individual's employment; (2) an employment decision is based on an individual's acceptance or rejection of such conduct; or (3) such conduct interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment."

The Anti-harassment Policy prohibits harassment and/or retaliation by any individual employed by, doing business with or for, or visiting CMG. Employees who believe they have been the subject of harassment and/or retaliation or an employee who may have been witness to harassment and/or retaliation must report the incident immediately. Information and/or allegations must be reported to a manager of CMG (by telephoning 866.920.1425 or 303.920.1425). Only those who have an immediate need to know, including the alleged target of harassment or retaliation, the alleged harassers or retaliators, and any witnesses may find out the identity of the complainant. All individuals contacted in the course of an investigation will be advised that all persons involved in a charge are entitled to respect and that any retaliation or reprisal against an individual who is an alleged target of harassment or retaliation, who has made a complaint, or who has provided information in connection with a complaint, is a separate violation of CMG's policy. All information will be disclosed only on a need-to-know basis to allow CMG to investigate and resolve the incident. CMG recognizes the serious nature of harassment and therefore will endeavor to protect the employee who may have been subjected to harassment, any witnesses and the party against whom allegations have been filed to every possible extent.

Harassment is unlawful and has a negative impact on employees. Violation of the Anti-harassment Policy will not be tolerated by CMG and may result in discipline up to and including termination. Offensive acts or conduct have no legitimate business purpose; accordingly, any employee, regardless of his/her position within CMG, who it is determined has engaged in such conduct will be made to bear the full responsibility for such unlawful conduct.

With respect to sexual harassment, the following is prohibited:

1. Unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and all other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual or otherwise offensive nature, especially where:

   - ☐ Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
   - ☐ Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for decisions affecting an individual's employment; or
   - ☐ Such conduct has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

2. Offensive comments, jokes, innuendoes and other sexually-oriented statements.

If Harassment Occurs:

1. When possible, confront the harasser and tell him/her to stop. Sometimes a simple confrontation will end the situation.
2. If confrontation is unsuccessful, immediately contact your CMG supervisor to report the harassment.
3. An investigation will be conducted and appropriate action taken, including disciplinary measures. We will investigate, in confidence; all reported incidents of harassment and retaliation.

CORPORATE MANAGEMENT GROUP

Employees:

Implementation of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010 (the health care reform law) requires that we send you this notice. The notice describes the new online Health Insurance Marketplace (also called an Exchange), which is available at www.healthcare.gov beginning October 1, 2013. The Marketplace describes options you may have available for health insurance (other than employer-based plans) and is designed so you can make easy cost and coverage comparisons. The enclosed notice also includes information about coverage you may be eligible for through Corporate Management Group (CMG).

If you have coverage through Essential StaffCare, please be advised that the Essential StaffCare plan does not meet the criteria to avoid a penalty under the ACA plan requirements for 2014 and beyond.

Starting in 2014, if you do not have medical coverage, you will have to pay a penalty (in the form of a tax). If you do not qualify for coverage through CMG or you do not enroll yourself or a dependent, it is your responsibility to obtain coverage or pay the penalty. This penalty is known as the "individual mandate penalty."

The individual mandate penalty increases each year. In 2014 the penalty is 1% of your household yearly income or $95 per adult and $47.50 per child (up to $285 for a family), whichever is higher. In 2015 the penalty is 2% of your household yearly income or $325 per adult and $162.50 per child (up to $975 for a family), whichever is higher. The penalty for 2016 is 2.5% of your household yearly income or $695 per adult and $347.50 per child (up to $2,085 for a family), whichever is higher. If you chose to pay the penalty you will not get any health insurance coverage and will be 100% responsible for the cost of your medical care.

If you are considered to be low income, Medicaid could be a viable option. Some states will also be expanding the eligibility rule and income requirements to qualify for Medicaid. To determine if the state where you live is expanding Medicaid coverage and to learn about Medicaid, please visit https://www.healthcare.gov/do-i-qualify-for-medicaid.

Please remember that open enrollment in the Marketplace begins on October 1, 2013 and ends on March 31, 2014. After open enrollment ends you will not be able to get health coverage through Marketplace until the next annual enrollment period, unless you have a qualifying life event.

Thank you,

New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Form Approved
OMB No. 1210-0149
(expires 11-30-2013)

PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.[1]

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution –as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage– is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

[1] An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

This section contains information about any health coverage offered by your employer. If you decide to complete an application for coverage in the Marketplace, you will be asked to provide this information. This information is numbered to correspond to the Marketplace application.
