

Jorge Botello
1493 S Biscay Court Aurora, CO 80017
720-304-5440 | jbotello61@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

Highly driven, detail-oriented Marine Corps veteran seeking to acquire a position in the automotive industry utilizing my strong work ethic, and determination to benefit the growth and success of the company.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Knowledge of industry standard tools and equipment for maintenance
- Diagnose and repair truck clutch systems.
- Basic welding procedures essential to working on big rigs and other diesel-powered equipment.
- Trained to diagnose, troubleshoot and repair medium and heavy duty diesel engines.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

UPS, Aurora, CO                      September 2019 - Present

Package Handler

- Load packages into delivery Trucks
- Adhere to company safe package handling standards at all times
- Unload trucks as they arrive and ensure packages are stored correctly
- Always follow proper postal routing guidelines

United States Marine Corps, Yuma, AZ                      February 2015 - April 2019

Aviation Ordnance Technician

- Inspected, maintained and repaired armament equipment
- Performed safe and timely loading of explosives while supervising and coaching personnel
- Verified aircraft systems were operational
- Performed preventive maintenance and repair of aircraft systems
- Indoctrinated new personnel on procedures and standards for safe handling of explosives

Murphy Express, Denver, CO                      October 2012 - February 2015

General Manager

- Ordered Merchandise and performed daily inventory of merchandise and cash flow
- Maintained cleanliness of store and lot
- Interviewed and trained new employees

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Lincoln College of Technology, (Denver, CO)                      August 2019 - December 2020
Diesel and Truck Service Management

Everest College, (Denver, CO)
Associate of Applied Science Degree-Business

