

On wednesday (Apr. 20. 2011) around 1:30 Am I went to do my Apple CCP check, and I took a look on Della's paperwork . I saw that she has done a check for the 2hour check at 11:20 pm , but she didn't finish the check , she didn't do the Operation QC checklist at 11:20 pm , and she was suppose to do the next check around one o'clock again , but I didn't see any check around one o'clock . so I showed Della's paperwork to Esperanza . we looked at it around 1:40 Am . Esperanza and I were wondering why Della missed a check . we just left the paper that we looked at where it was . An hour later I came back and look at the paper again , I saw all the check filled up , even the one that was missing at 11:20 pm , and the next check at 1:25 Am . And I showed Esperanza the paper again , so we assumed that Della make up the check .
